

Dust still 'worst in state' in this area

Particulates continue to give the local area the No. 1 black eye in Illinois in terms of annual average in areas having air monitoring equipment.

But other forms of air pollution do not reach significant volumes in the Quad-Cities, while they are excessive in many other areas of the state.

For the first time since monitoring was instituted in Illinois for air pollution, there were no violations of the annual standard for sulfur dioxide last year, according to figures released today in the 1976 Air Quality Report issued by the Illinois Environmental Protection Agency.

"Wood River was the last area in the state that had an annual sulfur dioxide violation," said Dr. Robert Arnold, manager, ambient air monitoring, Illinois EPA.

"Last fall, several companies started pollution control programs in that area and it appears those programs are working."

Sulfur dioxide is one of six air pollutants routinely monitored by the Illinois EPA. The others are particulates, nitrogen dioxide, ozone, hydrocarbons and carbon monoxide.

Each of these pollutants except for hydrocarbons has been identified as potentially dangerous to health, and the federal government has set limits on the maximum amount of each pollutant that is allowed in the air at any one time.

Of all the stations monitoring sulfur dioxide in Illinois, the one in Wood River recorded the highest annual average.

The lowest annual average was recorded in Champaign: Springfield was the only city in the state where a sulfur dioxide "yellow alert" was declared last year. Yellow alerts are declared when air pollutants reach unhealthy concentrations.

Particulates (dust, soot) which have more monitors than any other air pollutant in Illinois, averaged slightly higher last year than in 1975.

The highest annual average was recorded in Granite City. The highest 24-hour concentration was measured in Oglesby.

Statewide ozone levels were down slightly in 1976. But the highest ozone level ever recorded in the state occurred in Waukegan. This year, the Waukegan station has recorded even higher levels.

Drone is the only air pollutant in the state that consistently surpasses the

IRS intelligence unit says it works rapidly

The special intelligence unit of the Internal Revenue Service — active in an investigation of Madison County sheriff deputies — is a relatively "low profile" agency.

But its lack of public visibility is not because it is a newcomer. The intelligence mission of the IRS unit was spelled out in a commissioner's order as long ago as July 1, 1919, the Press-Record has learned.

Although concern is being voiced about the pace of the investigation in Madison County, prompt handling of such cases is a key objective of the IRS.

The special intelligence unit was created to conduct investigations related to:

1. Serious infractions of disciplinary rules or regulations.

2. Charges indicating serious violations of Internal Revenue laws — particularly income tax laws, through collusion, conspiracy, extortion, bribery or manipulation of any kind.

The basic mission is to encourage and achieve the highest possible degree of voluntary compliance with revenue laws by:

A. Enforcing the statutory sanctions applicable to income, estate, gift, employment and certain excise tax laws.

B. Developing information concerning extent of criminal violations.

C. Measuring the effectiveness of the investigation process.

D. Providing protection of persons and property and other enforcement coordination.

Criminal prosecution of IRS intelligence cases is recommended in every instance where the evidence is sufficient to indicate the possibility of guilt beyond a reasonable doubt, and where there exists a reasonable probability of obtaining a conviction.

All facts and circumstances are considered in the administrative determination of whether to recommend civil or criminal action.

Factors affecting a civil determination are:

1. A nominal tax deficiency.

2. Voluntary disclosure of the violation by the potential defendant.

3. Serious state of ill health of the proposed defendant.

IRS policy does not preclude prosecution when one of these elements is present in a case, but such factors may have a significant effect in the decision, it is explained.

A basic attitude of the

3 deaths investigated

State and local authorities today are investigating the deaths of three persons at the same address in Granite City.

The three deaths occurred during a five-day period from Tuesday, June 7, through Saturday, June 10, at 2029 Washington Ave., a large rooming house, and died after brief hospital stays.

The death certificates of Clinton Middleton, 52, who died Tuesday, and Betty Hale, 49, who died Wednesday, both show the cause of death as hepatitis on the copies on file in the City Hall.

But a spokesman for the Illinois Department of Public Health says the deaths of Mrs. Hale and Middleton were caused by sclerosis of the liver, a hardening of the tissue walls which impairs the liver's functioning. Sclerosis is not contagious; hepatitis can be. Neither was considered a coroner's case, so autopsies were not conducted before the burials.

The death at 6:30 p.m. Saturday of Walter Mahaney, 56, also of 2029 Washington, led to an investigation due to three yellow spots on his chest.

An autopsy was conducted yesterday morning at a Granite City funeral home, and the results are not expected to be available for several days, authorities said.

The state spokesman said the Illinois Department of Public Health will take no action until the Mahaney autopsy results are known.

Granite City health authorities and police detectives are questioning other residents, ambulance drivers and friends of the deceased under an investigation being coordinated by Fire Chief Donald Parente.

Sheriff warns of con game

Madison County Sheriff John Maera is warning county residents of a confidence game being used by "a very friendly man" who has bilked two elderly persons of a total of $1,720.

In both instances, the man said he had left-over asphalt from another job and would pave the victim's driveways at a low cost.

In one incident, a Collinsville Township man was bilked of $920 and in the other, an Edwardsville Township man lost $800.

Anyone being approached for such work is requested to notify the sheriff's department at 1-922-4422 before giving the workers any money.

Any legitimate workers will not object to having a deputy investigate before receiving payment, he added.

Weather outlook

Woman, 36, awaits open heart surgery

A wood carving just inside the front door proclaims "The Stantons — Ruth, Jim, Kathy, Bev and Kenny."

James, 19, now resides in Fairmont City and Kathy (Mrs. Jimmy) Dover lives in Poplar Bluff, Mo. Bev, 15, a GCHS North junior, and Kenny, six, a Lake School first grader, remain at home. Temporarily away from the family circle is their mother, Mrs. Ruth Stanton, 36, who is set to enter Grinnell Desloge Hospital, St. Louis.

In need of open heart surgery to repair defective valves of her heart, Mrs. Stanton is undergoing examination and care leading up to the complicated, costly operation.

The Illinois public aid recipient lacks the needed funds and a special account has been established on her behalf at the First Granite City National Bank. The Ruth Stanton Fund is coordinated by John Tallgren, an officer of the bank.

Aware of the seriousness of her condition but confident that she will soon be convalescing and back at her home at 3801 Lake Drive (Village Green mobile homes community), Mrs. Stanton recalled Friday that her health seemed good until the past year and a half.

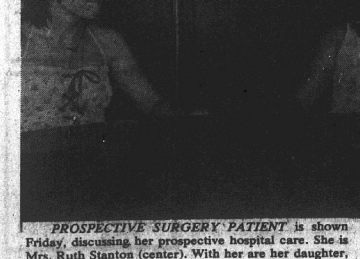

An annual medical examination associated with her work as a Granite City school bus driver detected heart defects in February 1976.

Her health has failed progressively since then, and in recent weeks she has had to spend most of the time resting. Born in Greenville, Ill., the former Ruth Hamilton attended Madison schools. She moved to the Wood River area after her marriage, and then returned here in 1974 after being divorced.

As a bus driver, she handled routes at various times to the two high schools, Grigsby and Prather junior high schools and Lake grade school.

Her father, William D. Hamilton, is retired from Granite City Steel, and her mother, Florine, works at

Tax bills set for late June

By HARRY BARNES
Press-Record Staff Writer

With the exception of residents of Venice and Madison, Quad-City area taxpayers will pay tax bills this year on generally reduced combined tax rates in their respective areas — but for the most part will pay higher bills than they did a year ago.

Tax rate extensions on which new tax bills will be based have been completed by the office of County Clerk Evelyn Bowles, which means that taxpayers in the Quad-City area and throughout Madison County should begin receiving tax bills the latter part of this month.

Adjustments in tax rates for the 1976 tax year result primarily from changes in assessments by county officials to achieve an overall 33.3 percent assessment rate by next year. This has required raising assessments in some of Madison County's 24 townships, and lowering them in others.

As the result of a 5 percent multiplier applied to assessments in Granite City Township by the Board of Review, the total of Granite City valuations has been fixed at $177,892,021, an increase of $10,866,684 from last year's assessment of $167,025,337.

On the basis of that assessment, the new combined tax rate of seven taxing districts to which Granite City pays taxes has been set at $6.49 per $100 assessed valuation, a reduction of 21.9 cents. Last year's combined Granite City rate was $6.708.

The new Granite City rate is made up of $1.302 for the corporate (city) rate, down from $1.361 last year; $2.581 for School District 9, down 18.9 cents from $3.729 last year; 24.3 cents for the Granite City Park District, down 3.5 cents from 28.4 cents; 18 cents for Belleville Area College, unchanged from last year; 21.4 cents for Granite City Township, up 6 of a cent from 20.8 cents; 58.8 cents for Madison County, up 3.7 cents from 55.1 cents, and 39.5 cents for the East Side Levee and Sanitary District, unchanged from last year.

The rates for BAC and for the levee district which also are applied in all other townships of the Quad-City area have been set by the county clerk of the basis of last year's assessments because St. Clair County has not completed its assessment and does not expect to do so until late this month.

The college and levee district occupy a portion of both counties and assessments therefore must be completed in both counties to establish the rate. Miss Bowles said that since all other rates have been completed, she could see no point in delaying another two

Political roles for lawyers

(Second in a series on politics in Madison County)

The role of lawyers in politics is large. Attorneys often make up the largest occupational group in state legislatures, and they often have a place on the advisory staffs of publicly-elected officials.

An example of the potential power stemming from the combination of legal expertise and public office is the position held by Illinois Attorney General William J. Scott.

A Republican — and traditionally a big vote-getter, Scott already exerts vast power by virtue of the office, and has expanded it through his activist approach.

Scott has failed thus far to obtain statewide grand jury power from legislators, who are apprehensive about how he might utilize it.

In Madison County, the chief legal officer, aside from the court system is State's Attorney Nicholas Byron. Along with handling prosecution, his staff advises other county officials.

Under this state's present court system, judicial ranks are filled primarily on the basis of which party dominates the particular circuit or district.

Initial six-year terms in the Third Circuit are won on the basis of competition between party nominees. Subsequent terms are filled by incumbent judges running on a non-

Armed robbery at GC tavern

A frustrated gunman fled from the Long Branch Tavern, 2105 Grand Ave., at 6:05 a.m. Saturday, with only $25 cash after holding Ed Wentle, 47, employee of the tavern, at bay with a snub-nosed revolver.

Wentle said he had just unlocked the front door and stepped inside the establishment when a man entered behind him displaying a revolver. The bandit ordered Wentle to the back of the tavern, where he was forced to lie down on the floor.

The robber then ransacked three cigar boxes containing cash, placing the money in a brown paper sack.

After an unsuccessful attempt to open the cash register, the man instructed Wentle to open it, but Wentle replied, "I don't have a key."

Visibly frustrated, the man uttered foul language and then departed.

The gunman was described as being in his late teens or early 20's, about 5-7 in height, thin build and weighing between 130 and 140, with shoulder-length dark brown hair.

He was wearing a light blue hat with a small brim, a light blue shirt and jeans. A large blue scarf covered his nose and mouth.

Public service by Miss Selma Nelson continues

By DONNA HARTWICK
Press-Record Staff Writer

After a lifetime of service to others, anything as trivial as retirement is not going to change one's approach. At least that is the view of Miss Selma Nelson, newly retired from the Granite City School District.

She plans to serve as a volunteer-in some capacity at the St. Louis Children's Hospital, and also expects to add other services actively when that is, not traveling to such points as Montana with her 82-year-old mother.

Miss Nelson's long and busy career has included the following:

Three years in the general office of the Tri-City Grocery Company here, 1933-36.

teacher in Granite City schools — Central, Niedringhaus and Washington — until 1939.

Eight years as a Granite City High School business and English teacher, including the entire World War II period.

Three years as an assistant professor and head of secretarial science in the Journalism Department, South Dakota State College, Brookings, 1946-49.

A year at Campus High School, Iowa State Teachers College, Cedar Falls, as assistant professor and assistant principal, 1949-50.

One year at Lindenwood College for Women, St. Charles, Mo., as assistant professor and head of secretarial science, 1950-51.

Internal Revenue Service is that criminal prosecution is paramount over civil aspects in fraud cases.

Civil actions—jeopardy and deficiency assessments, waivers, consents and statutory notices—imperiling successful criminal investigations or prosecutions will not be made, an official relates.

It is the agency's belief that investigations should be commenced and concluded expeditiously.

B. Be conducted impartially and thoroughly.
C. Avoid duplication, unnecessary inconvenience to the public and unnecessary embarrassment to the taxpayer.
D. Be terminated when sufficient evidence to convict has been obtained.

Some deputies have complained that federal authorities have been "dragging their feet" in completing their investigative tasks in Madison County, leaving those who have cooperated with the U. S. valiantly in terms of their employment and perhaps their physical safety.

Source of the overall IRS intelligence workload are referrals, 51 per cent, intelligence unit case development, 23 per cent, and miscellaneous, 26 per cent. Referrals consist of audit, 33 per cent, collection, 14 per cent, and data processing, four per cent.

The miscellaneous sources include the public and informants, 13 per cent, other government agencies, 10 per cent, and special category, three per cent.

In a typical year, 117,000 information items were evaluated in the Springfield district, with 108,000 closed on an information filing basis or transmitted to auditors, collectors, other IRS districts or other federal agencies.

The remaining 9,000 led to the conducting of preliminary investigations, from which 2,400 or two per cent of the grand total became full-scale investigations.

Of those cases recommended for prosecution, 84.1 per cent have resulted in verdicts of guilty.

CASH IS STOLEN

Delay Venice School Board appointment

At a special meeting Thursday evening, members of the Venice Board of Education still failed to reach agreement on the appointment of a new board member to fill a vacancy until next April's election.

The only action taken by the board in the 80-minute special session was the hiring of Miss Sharon Maurer of Venice as a teacher of trainable mentally handicapped students.

The board is required to appoint an individual to fill the vacancy created by the resignation of Mrs. Jacqueline Leatherman prior to 30 days from the date it was accepted on May 15.

Should the board be unable to agree on an appointee, Harry E. Briggs, superintendent of

Despite the health and financial uncertainties that have become a part of her life, she continues to look to the future with calm faith in the outcome of her surgery.

"I know my doctors are among the best," she comments, adding serenely, "I'm just going to wait to the time when I can be back again, and feeling well enough to take care of the family and the home."

When a $28½ million bond issue was considered for city endorsement June 7, it received only the minimum of ten favorable votes that it needed in order for the bonds to be sold.

Alderman Fred "Pat" Schuman, a teacher, voiced numerous objections, citing his concern that the hospital expansion could become a burden to the municipality. Others felt that there is sufficient hospital property and equipment to make up for any bond deficit.

Also voting against the project was Alderman Charles Douglas, a new attorney who has raised frequent procedural challenges.

Last year, there were five ozone yellow alerts—one in Chicago, one in Waukegan and three in Wood River. Wood River also recorded the most hours, 208, above the maximum annual standard for ozone.

Nitrogen dioxide concentrations throughout the area have remained relatively constant during the past three years and well below the federal annual standard.

Chicago has the highest levels of any place in the state and, except for one downtown site, the levels are well below the standard.

Carbon monoxide violations in Chicago decreased drastically last year as compared to previous years. Elsewhere in the state, carbon monoxide levels showed little change.

Hydrocarbons, which do not have any direct health effects but are part of ozone formation, remained high where reported.

Dental school adds 4th year

The SIUE School of Dental Medicine was authorized by the SIU Board of Trustees here Thursday to change its doctor of dental medicine curriculum from a three-year to a four-year program.

The change will be initiated with the class entering in the fall of 1978.

No new degree title or program was created by the action, but university officers said the modification will increase the hours taken by students and thus improve the quality of the dental program. Other reasons cited by the School of Dental Medicine for making the change include:

—Students will gain more professional maturity over a four-year span.

—The summer period will be available for remedial course and clinic work, elective programs, research and clinical care for qualified students who might desire early completion of the dental program.

—Part-time faculty will be employed on a 10-month contract, thus saving funds and providing appointment periods more acceptable to practicing dentists.

—The modification will provide the faculty with a more regulated and effective time to review and update curriculum during the summer quarter.

—There will be additional time for student and faculty research activity.

The change will not result in increased tuition costs because the new timetable does not call for students to be enrolled during the summer as they are now, and the required number of quarters of attendance will remain the same.

The extension to a four-year program was recommended in a long-range planning proposal for the School of Dental Medicine, presented to the board at its July 1976 meeting. The change was based on a feasibility study conducted by an ad hoc committee of the Dental School and a favorable vote of the faculty of the school.

No additional funds were requested for the program modification. School officials said staffing and facilities necessary to implement the change will be identified through reallocation of resources within the school.

The accelerated three-year program was proposed originally for the new School of Dental Medicine, with the first class entering in 1972, because of the shortage of dentists in Southern Illinois. Students attend 48 weeks per year, receiving a total of approximately 5,280 hours of instruction.

Under the new four-year program, students will attend 36 weeks per year for a total of 5,280 hours of instruction.

Year three of the four-year curriculum plan consists of 10 months, to be utilized by students starting comprehensive patient care, school officials said.

No decision on type of park pool funding

A key question to be answered by the Granite City Park District if it seeks to replace the present Wilson Park swimming pool is whether to utilize revenue bonds or general obligation bonds.

Park commissioners have indicated they plan to hold a series of meetings, other than regularly-scheduled business sessions, to devote additional study to the topic. One proposal is that, instead of an outdoor pool, an all-weather swimming facility could be constructed.

Park District Attorney Randall Robertson has commented to the board, "If you decide on attempting to issue general obligation bonds, which mean the basic burden of cost is on the taxpayer, arranging for public support in advance will be an excellent idea."

"On the other hand," said Robertson, "a revenue bond issue requires only simple passage by the board of a resolution calling for the bonds to be retired from revenue derived from the facilities to be built."

Noting that the park district's 1976 assessed property valuation has been set at more than $75 million, he stressed that a maximum of $440,000 could be obtained from general obligation bonds, which would require a referendum.

"A revenue bond issue has no monetary limitation," the attorney explained, "and does not require a public referendum unless petitions are submitted within 10 days from the date of adoption of the ordinance."

Robertson cautioned that, in utilizing revenue bonds as the means to obtain finances, "the facility for which the money is to be used is responsible for retiring the bonds."

"Problems could arise if that particular facility is unable to derive sufficient income to pay for itself," he noted.

Recalling steps taken in developing public support to initiate construction of the present ice skating rink and recreation center at Wilson Park, Commissioner Barry Loman has suggested calling on citizens of the community to serve as an advisory committee to help insure overall success of planned projects.

"A citizen's advisory committee and the park board would work together toward achieving a common goal beneficial to the residents," he added.

The advisory committee submits its proposals to the park board and we would give those proposals serious consideration before giving our final approval or disapproval."

Equipment taken from parked cars

The vehicles of two American Steel employees were forced open and equipment stolen, they reported last week.

Mark Migneco of St. Louis said a citizens band radio valued at $80 was taken from his auto parked in the company lot, and Dan Blackburn of Maryville reported a citizens band radio worth $112 and a tape deck valued at $90 were stolen from his auto.

Charges brother after disturbance

Frank A. Urban of Fairmont City informed police that his brother, Vincent A. Urban, also of Fairmont City, became belligerent and created a disturbance after being refused service at 1 a.m. Thursday at Rico's II lounge.

Vincent Urban, 21, was charged with battery after he allegedly struck his brother and threw a glass at him, hitting him in the ribs.

YOUTHFUL PATIENT. Christina Collins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carlos Collins, 3800 Pontoon Road, is shown with Mrs. Gen Helrich, surgette nurse at St. Elizabeth Hospital. The surgette program, now in its second year, permits out-patient surgery without overnight admittance in cases where possible. The program has received many favorable comments, according to hospital authorities.

'Surgette' program at hospital in second year

Surgette, the out-patient surgery program, is in its second year at St. Elizabeth Hospital.

The program has brought favorable comments from the patients, according to Mrs. Gen Helrich, surgette nurse.

"They (the patients) are either grateful because of the time they save by not having to spend the night or, if they are parents of a small child requiring surgery, they appreciate being able to take their child home with them on the same day," Mrs. Helrich said.

The patient also realizes a cost reduction by eliminating the overnight stay, she noted. Under the surgette program, a person may go to the hospital for laboratory tests at his convenience on the day before surgery and no longer has to be admitted for these tests.

Physicians perform these surgical procedures in the same operating suites and under the same conditions as in-patient recovery before discharge, Mrs. Helrich explained. In order to qualify for out-patient surgery, a person must be in relatively good health as determined by his physician and the anesthesiologist and the surgical procedure being performed must have been approved for out-patient surgery by the hospital's medical staff.

Fatality pace fastest since early 1971

The total of 12 Quad-City area traffic deaths during the first five months of this year is the largest number of fatalities for any January-May period since 1971, traffic statistics compiled by the Press-Record showed today.

The 12 traffic deaths occurring since Jan. 1 this year compare with 19 fatalities during the same period in 1971. The totals were 10 each in 1972, 1973 and 1974, nine in 1975 and seven in January-May 1976.

This year's traffic death total resulted from five fatalities during May, following two in January, two in February and three in April. There were no traffic deaths in March this year.

During the first five months of this year, 405 persons were injured, with 78 of those during May. This was a reduction of 40 injury cases below the 445 injuries reported during the same period last year.

This year's injury total compares with that of 1971, when 379 persons were injured during the January-May period.

The 1971 year established the current record for Quad-City area traffic deaths through the entire year—a total of 46.

The tally of fatalities includes persons fatally injured in crashes occurring within the Quad-City area, and Quad-City residents who are injured fatally in accidents occurring elsewhere.

So far this year, there have been 264 injury-related accidents resulting in the 405 injuries during the five-month period, compared to 300 such injury accidents during the same period last year. These accident totals do not include accidents in which no injuries occurred.

Republican Women discuss elections

A discussion centered on the City Council of Granite City decision to make the office of superintendent of streets an appointive office rather than elective, was held at a meeting of the Granite City Republican Women's Club.

Petitions are being circulated to retain this as an elective office for future elections, it was noted. Members agreed to write their congressmen opposing people registering at the polls on election day, which in the opinion of the local group would add confusion at the polls and increase fraud in voting.

President Mrs. Lida Theis opened the meeting, at the Grand Cafe, and led the pledge of allegiance and club pledge.

Mrs. Theis introduced George Slattery, Granite City Republican chairman, who spoke on the duties of poll judges and precinct committee.

The program for the evening was a report by Reva Turner, Eva Neier and Vernice Walter on a legislative seminar they had attended in May in Springfield, Ill.

Mrs. Edmund Firmer also gave a report on the Madison County Republican Central committee dinner meeting held at Lewis and Clark Restaurant.

Guest speakers at the session were Congressman Paul Findley and Dave O'Neal, lieutenant governor of Illinois.

Members completed plans to send a memorial gift to the State Federation of Republican Women in honor of the late Mrs. Betty Schumacker. She had served as third vice-president of the local organization.

Prizes were awarded to Mrs. Theis and Mrs. Lillie Ann Firmer, and each one presented a small flag pin as a reminder that Tuesday, June 14, is flag day.

Guests attending were Lorene Cozart, Alfred Pace, George Walter, George Slattery and Edmund Firmer.

The club will recess for the summer and resume meetings on Sept. 6 at the Grand Cafe.

Shower fetes Mrs. Cochran

Mrs. Michael (Mary) Cochran was complemented at a baby shower given at the Slovak Hall, last week, by Mrs. Jeanette Saucier, a sister-in-law, Mrs. Catherine Crossamer, and Mrs. Verna Cochran, her mother and mother-in-law, respectively.

Games were played and prizes awarded to the winners, followed by the honoree opening her gifts.

Pink and blue storks decorated the tables and a large square cake, topped with rosettes and blue baby motifs, centered the serving table.

Those present were Mrs. Sonja Barker and daughter Jackie, Mrs. Mary Enos, Mrs. Mary Ann Cochran and son Kit, Mrs. Ruth Bushue, Mrs. Jackie Harrison, Mrs. Fran Barnhart, and son Jeff, Mrs. Jessie Foley, Mrs. Rose Steele, Mrs. Mary Lou O'Connell, Mrs. Yvonne Foley, Mrs. Anne Bruno, Mrs. Carla Butler, Mrs. Josephine Seka.

Mrs. LEONA PARENTE ENTERTAINS CLUB

Mrs. Leona Parente, 1621 Lindell Blvd., entertained the Monday Afternoon Pinochle Club, in her home.

Prize winners included Mrs. Marie Perry, Mrs. Belle Kreherer, a guest, Mrs. Theresa Walkenbach and Mrs. Marcel Clover. Also present were Mrs. B. V. Edwards, Mrs. Pauline Canham and Mrs. Myrtle Bruns.

GC Business Women to hear ARCH director

Walter Wiehardt, director of the Alcohol Rehabilitation Community House (ARCH), 2049 State St., will be the guest speaker at the Granite City Business and Professional Women's dinner meeting at 6:30 p.m. Wednesday.

Reservations should be made today for the dinner, scheduled to take place at Charlie's Restaurant, by calling LaVelle Stephens, first vice-president and program chairman, at 876-5684, or Betty Nugent, at 876-6538, both after 5 p.m.

Programs for the year will be previewed at Wednesday's meeting, Mrs. Stephens said.

Wiehardt, a Granite City resident, has served as director of ARCH since March.

Previously, he was employed at St. Elizabeth Hospital.

He has a degree in psychology from Southern Illinois University.

ARCH primarily is a means to help the alcoholic achieve economic self support and to eliminate, or at least reduce, dependency on the ARCH program.

Because the majority of the ARCH residents are unemployed, Wiehardt noted the importance of making potential job sources available through the Work Incentive Program (WIN). Manpower programs and local or temporary job openings.

It is, however, the responsibility of each resident to follow through with any job opportunity, he explained.

ARCH provides an atmosphere which approximates a home environment by having community meetings where the residents can participate in the decision making.

Group counseling and constant contact with each resident also prevents the exploitation of any member in the community home by any other residents, Wiehardt said.

ARCH provides all current resources for its residents, including medical (in or outpatient) assistance and AA help, Wiehardt said.

Continued contact with past residents of ARCH and further counseling for those no longer living at the house are both important aspects of the program, the director said.

All working women in the Quad-Cities are invited to attend Wednesday's dinner meeting, Mrs. Stephens said.

Mrs. Lorene Sadrakula, BPW president, will be in charge of the business session.

Leadership stressed at BPW conference

"Change, Challenge and Response" was the theme of the Illinois Federation of Business and Professional Women's leadership conference held last week in Carbondale.

Those taking part also attended a banquet observing the 50th anniversary of the Carbondale Club. Miss M. Fidelity Doolin, Illinois BPW president, and a member of the host club, was in attendance, together with other state officers.

Participants heard the significance of the 1977-78 BPW theme explained by conference leaders as:

Change—the role of women in the world is changing. Responsibilities in both the home and the working world are changing and women are feeling a need to express and learn more about themselves and the world in general.

Ratification of the Equal Rights Amendment still is of paramount importance to all women and the national, state and local BPW organizations will continue to support the measure, the state chairman said.

Challenge—is for all members to live up to the creed of Women Helping Women in any situation that presents a potential of doing so.

After the challenge of change is met the response will be apparent and through effort and service the goal will be reached.

Local Granite City BPW members attending were Lorene Sadrakula, president; Annellen Smith, state membership chairman; and LaVelle Stephens, Lois Wetton, Sylvia in Wright, Rosemary Bastedon, Pauline Weir, Verna Lengyel, Hazel Rollins, Judith McCann, Ruth Walk, Ollie Derr, Rosalie Stern, Celestia in general.

Mae Gates, Dee Klesh, Linda Wetton, Margaret Scott and Louise Smith.

School valuations up, cut 'full funding' deficit

The State Board of Education on Thursday reduced its budget request for elementary and secondary education in Illinois during 1977-78 by $32 million, bringing the board's total budget request to $1.83 billion. The board asked that $30 million be deleted from the general state aid request and $2 million from the grants-in-aid request.

Donald Truitt, chairman of the board's budget committee, explained that the cut in the general state aid request is due to a recalculation of the amount needed to fully fund the state aid formula next year.

"Revised property assessment and tax rate figures available for the current calculation provided a more accurate estimate of what the needs actually will be. The figures indicated that $30 million less will be needed to fully fund the formula than was originally projected," Truitt said.

He added that $2 million was deleted from the grants request because the state board had decided to defer two new programs — career education and responsibility education — until at least next year.

The board also asked that the governor revise his budget allocations to assure school districts that they would be reimbursed for money already spent on state-mandated special education and transportation programs.

"A minimum of $45 million would have to be added to the governor's proposed education appropriation to allow local districts to be repaid for these costs," Truitt asserted.

In a resolution passed at its meeting in Springfield, the board reaffirmed its position of full-funding for all mandated grants. In addition, it named vocational education, adult education and desegregation assistance as three priorities among the non-mandated programs.

Traffic moving well on McKinley bridge

Traffic on the McKinley Toll bridge during May totaled 282,393 vehicular crossings for a daily average of 9,106 crossings, according to Thomas Fields, bridge manager.

Fields reported to the Venice City Council last week that this is an increase of 733 vehicles per day over May 1976.

"Part of this increase is due to the Poplar Street bridge being in repair and the heavy slow-down and backups of traffic on that bridge.

Even though we are under major repair, our traffic is slowed only briefly at the toll gate, but really moves quite well," Fields said.

"I also feel that the bridge here in Venice will retain many of the new vehicles using it due to the location of our bridge," Fields asserted.

Asked by a council member if there was anything to the report last week about Bi-State Development Agency plans to buy the McKinley bridge, Fields remarked, "All I know about that is what I read in the paper."

Some question was raised at the council meeting over Bi-State's legal right to purchase an existing bridge in Illinois.

The council approved paying

Woman threatened on parking lot

A Granite City woman reported at 3:10 p.m. Wednesday that her former husband blocked her auto while she and her son were at a grocery store at Crossroads Plaza Shopping Center, and then produced a snubnose pistol from his waistband, telling her "You are as good as dead."

The woman said the man then struck the son and kicked him in the left leg when he told her former husband to leave her alone.

A police officer at a nearby store was summoned, but the man already had left. The officer talked with persons having viewed the incident and also with the man at home, who admitted having a pistol, but denied having been away from the house.

Lincoln drama at New Salem

New Salem State Park — The rustic charm of this restored village where Lincoln spent six important years of his life is being renewed in anticipation of his return in "The Great American People's Show production of 'Your Obedient Servant, A. Lincoln.'"

The second season for the company and play will begin on June 17 and run nightly — except Monday — through Aug. 27 in a specially-constructed outdoor theater in Kelso Hollow, a few feet from the restored village.

Described as a documentary-drama with music, the play chronicles not only the life of President Lincoln but reveals attitudes and feelings of the times in which he lived and matured.

With dialogue drawn almost entirely from authentic reports, letters, accounts and songs of the era, the production seeks to recapture the fervor of a period in American history that boiled with ideas and men in conflict.

Following a premiere season that received such critical acclaim as "...a stunning blend of theater and history... a marvelous stage... exceptionally fine script... a truly one-of-a-kind experience," Director John Ahart has expressed eager anticipation for this second season.

"Our first season was an adventure in itself. Everyone did double and triple duty to get our play on."

"Costume designers sold tickets and planted flowers. Business managers acted and mowed the lawn. Secretaries ushered and wrote releases."

"And everyone hammered, sawed and painted seven days a week for as many as 16 hours a day. Well, we're doing it that way again this year because we feel that's part of the experience of what our production is all about."

"The sense of self-sufficiency that we discovered in our research into Lincoln and that era has become a very real, immediate experience in the lives of those working with this production."

"It is an experience that is necessary to feel if it is to be effectively shared with our audience."

"There's something more than simple theater that we're doing here. It's a dramatic experience that involves us all, and seeks to include those who would come and enjoy it with us."

Played on a dynamic and innovative setting in the Kelso Hollow Theater, and set against the historical background of Lincoln's New Salem village, the performance is such that many say it is impossible not to be captivated.

"Spirited" is the most frequent word used to describe the group of young people seeking to bring the nation's historical past into a vivid, meaningful present.

A feature new to this season's production is a "humanities night" performance. Each Wednesday evening's performance will be especially condensed to allow the presentation of remarks by an academic humanist on the issues and problems raised in the play.

Following the performance, the audience will be invited to discuss the play with the speaker, the cast and the director.

A special $1 ticket price for the humanities night performance will be in effect each Wednesday.

Because "Your Obedient Servant, A. Lincoln" is intended to be a whole family experience, another second season feature this summer is the introduction of a family rate admission.

From official portrait, Smithsonian

With this, an entire family (father, mother, children) may be admitted for the flat rate of $10. "This should be of special interest to all the camping families on the road this summer," a spokesman comments.

Kelso Hollow Theater at Lincoln's New Salem is 20 miles northwest of Springfield. Tickets are $4 for adults and $3 for students and people over 65. Children under six years of age are admitted free when accompanied by a parent. The family plan admission is $10, as noted, and every Wednesday is humanities night with a special admission price of $1.

Information and reservations are available at the ticket office (217-632-7755) or by writing The Great American People Show Co., P.O. Box 401, Petersburg, Ill. 62675.

PARTY HONOREES. Miss Sandra Kay Baker and her brother, Philip J. Baker, were honored at a buffet dinner dance at the VFW Hall, hosted by their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Paul J. Baker, 2323 State St. She graduated from Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville, and he was graduated from South High School.

Dinner dance fetes graduates

Sandra Kay Baker and her brother, Philip J. Baker, were complimented at a graduation party given by their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Paul J. Baker, 2323 State St., at the VFW Hall. Miss Baker received a B.S. Degree, with a dual major in Special Education and Elementary Education from Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville. She is active in the youth department of the First Baptist Church and has been director of the "Joy Singers" a youth gospel singing group for two and one half years. Her brother was graduated from South High School where he was an active member of the vocal department. He is an employee of Sambo's Restaurant and also has a band known as "The Fantasy."

A red, white and blue color scheme was used for the hall, and tables were covered with white cloths centered with white candelabra holding red tapers. Streamers accented a table with a large decorated cake, topped with miniature black and white graduation caps and tiny diplomas. Also on the table were pictures of the graduates and memoir guest books. After dinner approximately 75 guests enjoyed dancing.

Legionnaires still unbeaten after six

How long can Tri-City American Legion Post 113 remain unbeaten?
Coach Conrad Champion doesn't know, but he and his players are enjoying it while it lasts. By winning 8-0 over East St. Louis last Friday, the team improved its 1977 record to 6-0 and its Legion District 2 record to three wins against no losses. Tough competition looms ahead.

After playing at Bethalto at six o'clock tonight and in Alto against the Legion nine at 6 p.m. Tuesday, Post 113 will host the Alto Optimists independent team at 6 p.m. Wednesday on the Fehling Road diamond.

Following a league game at 8 p.m. Thursday at Edwardsville, Tri-City will host the top-ranked Cincinnati, O., Storm club on two doubleheaders at 1 p.m. Saturday and Sunday on Fehling Road.

Barnstorming across the U.S. and Canada, the Olinians have built a substantive record while competing against Babe Ruth League, American Legion and other teams.

Eldon Warfield had a one-hitter for Post 113 until the sixth inning Friday and finished with a five-hit shutout. His team fielded flawlessly and the visitors misused twice.

The ten-hit Post 113 offense produced scoring flurries in three innings.

In the first, Tom Henrich and Keith Champion walked, Larry Heagy and Mike Clark each singled in a run, Paul Evans grounded out to account for a third tally and John Lakin singled for a fourth.

In the second, Henrich walked in the second inning, Randy Smith forced him out, Champion doubled to put runners on second and third base and Clark singled both in.

In the sixth, Henrich again started it with a single, Smith tripled and Clark drove Smith across on a fielder's choice.

Mercer loses twice, other squads divide

It was a good Sunday for some local Inter-City Baseball League teams but a difficult one for others.

Mercer Mortuary lost 19-5 and 5-2 to the Music Room Vans at Wilson Park, while two other local squads divided a twinnish at Mitchell, the hosts winning 1-0 on John Henke's ten-strikeout, six-hit game and Thomas then triumphing 5-3.

J and J played at East Alto, losing to the Brewers 6-1 but then winning, 6-5.

Panama won 7-3 and then Highland-Pierson got revenge, 6-1.

Mercer had a 2-0 lead in its opener until the Vans romped 11 runs in the top half of the sixth inning. Jeff Scarborough's three hits were not enough to turn the tide.

The second game was tighter, the Vans scoring a run in the first inning, two in the fourth and two in the seventh.

In the bottom of the fifth, Mercer's Dennis Harrington got on base on a fielder's choice and Jim Greenwald belted a home run.

Stan Hale threw a four-hitter for Thomas in losing, the only scoring was in the sixth, when Mitchell's Bill Stottle reached second base on a muffed drive to center field. Bryson's hit walked, Ed Kowalski singled to lead the bases and Dan Vartanian singled and the pitcher threw wildly to the next batter.

John Pritchard got three hits for Thomas but was fanned by Henke with three runners on base in the seventh.

2nd session for cyclists

American Motorcyclist Association-sanctioned racing enters its second week of competition tomorrow morning at Tri-City Speedway with pre-race qualifying time trials starting at seven o'clock.

The first of several heat races is set for 8 p.m., followed by semifinals events which serve to qualify riders for a starting spot in a 10-lap program finale lineup.

Texas Guy McClure, winner of a heat race and a semifinal race last week before taking runner-up honors behind feature race winner Terry Poovey, will be on hand tomorrow attempting to gain points. He is competing this time in quest of a second straight track title on the quarter-mile dirt oval.

It took McClure, age 22, three seasons of competing at Tri-City to achieve top point honors last year.

In 1974, he placed second in the standings behind Oklahoma's Randy Clegg, now division champion, edging Jones for the title with a win in the season-ending racing program.

McClure last year battled throughout the season with Lance Jones of Alabama for the track championship, edging Jones for the title with a win in the season-ending racing program.

In addition to gaining the Tri-City title, McClure took runner-up honors in his division at Santa Fe Speedway near Chicago and won 16 professional racing events before topping the season with a second-place finish behind California's Kenny Roberts at the Talladega track national in Alabama.

Utilizing a pre-determined amount of points established by the AMA, required for advancement into different racing classes, McClure was ranked first in the nation as a novice (beginner) and as a junior class racer, and again in his "rookie"

14-hit barrage wins for Post 113

Mascoutah's American Legion ballclub committed only three errors Thursday night while hosting Tri-City Post 113 in a District 22 league contest.

Enabling Conrad "Babe" Champions Legionnaires to grab an early lead enroute to defeating the hosts, 11-4.

The win was the fifth straight overall and second in a row in league competition for Tri-City.

Doug Rains got his first league win on the mound to go with a previous exhibition victory.

Post 113 scored two of its first-inning runs on Mascoutah fielding errors.

Following singles by Tom Henrich and Randy Smith, Keith Champion reached base on an error that allowed Henrich to score when the throw went over the first baseman's head.

Larry Heagy singled and a dropped flyball by the centerfielder enabled Smith to score while Mike Clark reached first. An infield out by Paul Evans provided a run.

After a second-inning tally by the hosts, each side gained a run in the third frame, Tri-City on a dropped flyball, enabling Smith to reach second base, and a single by Champion.

While Mascoutah put lone runs across in the fourth and fifth innings, the local squad added to its lead with three runs in each of those frames.

Singles by Eldon Warfield, Joe Parente and Henrich provided two runs. A single by Smith, a walk to Heagy and Mike Clark's sacrifice fly secured a third tally.

Suit filed in auto injury

Frank Broyles has filed a two-count suit in Madison County Circuit Court, seeking $100,000 in each count against Glen A. Sprankle, 3096 Jill Ave., and Karl Anthony Polzin of Hazelwood, Mo. Broyles alleges that on May 30, 1975, while operating a pickup auto westward on Broadway near State Street, he was injured when westbound auto driven by Sprankle and Polzin collided and then one of the autos struck Broyles' auto.

BENTON ST. BURGULARY
Clementine Wadlow, 2540 Benton St., reported at 3:15 p.m. Saturday that her home was entered and several items of value taken. No signs of forced entry were found. Taken were assorted clothing, equipment valued at $10, a tape recorder valued at $60, $5 worth of silver dollars, a coin collection, a pocket knife and medications.

Tax bills

weeks, and possibly longer, for St. Clair County. She said there is provision in state statutes for using a previous year. Any change in rate resulting from the year's county valuations could be adjusted when next year's rates are set for these two agencies, Miss Bowles noted.

In addition, she said, she is using last year's valuation for rate purposes in four other tax districts that overlap into St. Clair County—Collinsville, the Collinsville Fire Protection District, the State Park Fire Protection District.

The overlapping districts, Miss Bowles said, "are a big headache every year."

While this year's combined tax rate for Granite City Township is 2.9 cents per $100 assessed valuation lower than it was a year ago, the tax payment this year appears certain to be higher because of the 10 percent multiplier applied to the township's overall assessment.

Last year, the combined rate of $8.708 applied against a home assessed at $10,000 would result in a tax bill of $870.80. But this year, because of the multiplier, the assessment of a $10,000 home becomes an assessment of $10,800.

Applying this year's combined rate of $6.489 against the assessment of $10,800 produces a tax bill of $700.81.

Appraisers living in Venice and Madison will pay bills this year on the basis of rates increased over those of last year, but because of generally reduced assessments in Venice Township, their bills should be close to those of last year.

The combined tax rate for seven taxing districts in Madison is computed at $6.674, up 15.5 cents over the combined rate of $5.819 a year ago. Usually all of the increase is in the rate for School District 12 and in the township rate.

The new rate for the school district is set at $3.11, up from $3.01 last year, while the township rate is 46.8 cents, up from 32.4 cents.

The rate for the city of Madison is $1.833, down from $1.881, and the new rate for road and bridge purposes is 1.8 cents, down slightly from 6.7 cents last year. Other rates on which Madison taxpayers will pay are the 18-cent BAC rate and the 35.5-cent levee district rate.

In Venice, the new combined rate for eight taxing districts is $6.576, up 27.2 cents per $100 assessed valuations from last year's rate of $6.098.

Of the increase, 11.6 cents is in the new rate of $1.576 for the city of Venice which is increased over last year's rate of $1.460. The new rate for Venice School District 3 is set at $3.487, up from $3.463, and the Venice Park district rate is 27.0 cents, up from 25.8 cents.

Venice residents also will pay on the new township rate of 40.9 cents, up from 32.4 cents; the road and bridge rate of 6 cents, down from 6.7; the county rate of 58.6, the levee rate of 39.5 cents and the BAC rate of 18 cents.

Pontoon Beach taxpayers also will pay bills on a reduced combined rate of 5.758, a reduction of 11.7 cents below last year's rate of $5.875. Pontoon Beach, since it is located in Nameoki Township, is not affected by a multiplier in determining its assessed valuation. The Board of Review did not apply a multiplier to Nameoki Township.

The rate of School District 9 accounted for all of the reduction in Pontoon Beach's combined rate and offset several other minor increases. The 16.3-cent rate about for the school district also cut the rise in the 58-cent county rate and a slight rise in the township rate from 36.6 cents to 37.4 cents.

Other new rates in Pontoon Beach are 30.2 cents for the Long Lake Fire District, unchanged from last year; a road and bridge rate of 35.8 cents, up from 35.2 cents; the 39.5-cent levee district rate, unchanged from last year; and the 18-cent rate for BAC.

The new combined rate for Nameoki Township, basically including six taxing districts, is $5.456, down 11.7 cents from last year's rate of $5.573. Again, the reduction in the rate of School District 9 accounts for all of the decrease and absorbs several other minor rate increases.

Nameoki rates include that of the school district at $3.561, the township at $7.4 cents, up from 6.4; road and bridge, 35.8 cents, up from 35.2 cents; the county, 58.6 cents, up from 55.1; the levee district at 39.5, unchanged from last year; and the BAC rate of 18 cents, unchanged from last year.

In Chouteau Township, some property owners will be confronted with higher bills because of a 15 percent multiplier applied by the Board

The above total rates are basic combined rates on which nearly all taxpayers will pay 1976 tax bills this summer in the township and city and village areas shown. Taxpayers who live in other districts must add the rates of those districts to the combined rates shown above. Consequently, the overall rates will vary.

Persons living in the Long Lake Fire District, for example, should add 30.2 cents to other rates in Nameoki Township to determine their local combined rate. Those in the Miracle Manor-Bellemeor Place Lighting District should add 12 cents. In State Park Place, taxpayers of the lighting district should add 12.5 cents.

Venice residents who live in Granite City School District 9 should add that rate instead of the Venice District 3 rate. In all cases, the overall rate can be determined by adding the rates of governmental districts in which the taxpayers live.

The combined rates are applicable to each $100 assessed valuation.

Review against all lands and improvements, even though the overall combined rate is lower than that of last year.

In the case of Chouteau Township, property assessed last year at $10,000 would have been billed at $577.80 on the basis of last year's $5.778 combined rate per $100 assessed valuation.

This year, however, that same assessment becomes $11,500 under the multiplier. The township's combined rate of $5.652, applied against that valuation, would produce a tax bill of $649.98.

The combined Chouteau Township rate includes School District 9 at 3.561; the township at 23.8 cents, down from 24.2; road and bridge at 39 cents, up slightly from 38.1; Mitchell Fire District at 30 cents, unchanged from last year; the 18-cent BAC rate, the 58.8-cent county rate and the 39.5-cent levee rate.

Some residents live in areas of their respective townships that include other taxing districts, to arrive at their completed rate in such areas, taxpayers must add the rates of those districts.

Such other rates include the Miracle Manor-Bellemeor Place Lighting District 12 cents, up from 11.9; State Park Place Fire District 30 cents, unchanged, and the State Park Place Street Lighting District 12.5 cents, unchanged.

Allegedly strikes ex mother-in-law
Carmen R. Hahne, 1631, Second St., Madison, was charged with battery in connection with allegedly striking her former mother-in-law, Mrs. Ethel Struckman, 46, of 1804 State St., last week at her home.

Mrs. Struckman was taken by officers to St. Elizabeth Hospital, where x-rays were taken and she was treated. She was released on a $10,000 bond after a bruise on the left cheek and a bump on the head. She reported having been unconscious for a time, but declined to be admitted to the hospital.

56,000 due for state tax refunds

As many as 56,000 persons will be eligible for state income tax refunds due to a recent extension of a federal income tax law that allows taxpayers to exclude from adjusted gross income sick pay they received in 1976, according to state Revenue Director Robert M. Whittier.

The Federal Tax Reform Act of 1976 had revoked provisions of the Internal Revenue Code that allowed a sick or disability pay exclusion for all but totally and permanently disabled retirees under age 65.

But the Tax Reduction and Simplification Act of 1977 extended the provision until Jan. 1, 1977, which means that sick and disability pay income can be excluded from adjusted gross income for the 1976 tax year.

The law enables eligible taxpayers to exclude up to $100 a week in sick or disability pay received in 1976 that related to sickness, injury, or disability that prevented them from working.

Whittier explained how the exclusion would mean a tax refund for qualifying state income taxpayers.

"The exclusion reduces the amount of federal adjusted gross income, and that's the figure the Illinois taxpayer uses to begin computing his state income tax liability. Where the federal adjusted gross income is reduced, so, too, is the taxpayer's state tax liability."

The federal Internal Revenue Service has estimated that 56,000 persons will file for the exclusion from Illinois.

Whittier said the revenue department will issue refunds to persons eligible for the exclusion who file an amended 1976 income tax return. He outlined these steps for doing that.

—The taxpayer should first amend his federal return. The Internal Revenue Service says taxpayers who have filed their 1976 federal income tax return and who now are eligible for the federal exclusion should file a 1976 federal income tax return.

These forms are available from any IRS office.

—Any state refund related to the sick pay exclusion depends on the IRS's approval of the taxpayer's amended federal return.

The taxpayer should wait until notice of the federal refund is received. The taxpayer should then attach a copy of the completed federal return to the state tax refund check—before filing an amended state income tax return.

—Once the federal notice has been received, the taxpayer should file with the state revenue department an amended Illinois income tax return, Form IL-1040-X, and attach a copy of the completed federal forms U.S. 1040-X and U.S. 2440.

The state form can be obtained by writing to the Department of Revenue, Box 3545, Springfield 62708 or by calling the department at 1-800-252-8972, a toll-free number.

Well to provide water supply
The Granite City Park Board has approved the purchase of a new pump and digging of a well in the Wilson Park garden area at a cost of $2,120 and labor at a cost of $16 per hour.

The system will alleviate an annual $1,000 water bill and provide sufficient water supply for the park.

It was noted the present pump is obsolete and parts cannot be located to make repairs.

Medicine and coins were taken in a burglary reported at 5 p.m. Thursday at the home of Mrs. Mimi White, 2837 (rear) Pershing Blvd., who found the front door open upon returning home.

Colorful pageantry as Oriental bands gather

Nine Oriental bands competed during the weekend in and near Stauffer's Riverfront Inn in St. Louis under the guidance of Avery Schermer, president of the Great Lakes Oriental Band Association. Schermer, a Granite Cityan and president of the Schermer Supermarkets in Madison and Pontoon Beach, heads the seven-state organization of bands representing Shrine temples.

Other officers are: vice-president, Warren Convis of Elkhart; first vice-president, Hugh W. Whitlock, Mocha Temple, Windsor, Ontario; second vice-president, Harold L. Butler, Mohammed Temple, Peoria; sergeant-at-arms, Wilfred W. Walther, Murat Temple, Indianapolis; and secretary-treasurer, Ralph Heinzerth, Zenobia Temple, Toledo, O.

It is the first time that such an event was held in St. Louis. Moolah Temple does not have an Oriental band, and Ainaid Temple served as the host.

About 350 Oriental-costumed Nobles of the Mystic Shrine participated. On Saturday morning, each of the bands marched in competition near the hotel, seeking points in each of the categories for trophies and awards. In the afternoon, they appeared on the stage to play a concert and to be judged on music, direction and ability.

A parade permitted the colorful, desert-type uniforms to be displayed. The turned-up toes of the shoes, the fancy pantaloons and the flowing scarves all added to the effect.

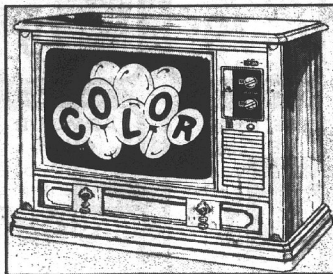

The instruments ranged from muzzettes to gongs, cymbals, congo drums, bells and tamborines. The Oriental Band of Ainaid Temple is headed by President Ray Rodgers of Edwardsville, Ill. Banding, vice-president, Arthur Smith, secretary, and Carl Roach of Granite City, treasurer, William Ledbetter are in charge of the judges for the show.

ROBERT A. WILLIAMS

Top teacher award given

Robert A. Williams, assistant professor of elementary education at SIUE is the 1977 winner of the Great Teacher Award, established eight years ago by the SIUE Alumni Association.

Given solely for excellence in classroom teaching, not research, administrative accomplishment or personality—the award was presented to Williams at Friday's commencement exercises. The "great teacher" is selected annually by members of the Alumni Association, who are required to submit with their nominations a brief explanation of each recommendation.

In explaining why he voted for Williams, one SIUE alumnus wrote, "He is creative—practical. He makes education an enjoyable learning experience. The students get involved, and his enthusiasm and resourcefulness are fantastic." An active member of several professional organizations in his fields of interest, Williams earned his bachelor's degree in science at the University of Georgia and his doctor of philosophy degree in science education at Georgia State University.

His interests include the environment, the metric system, national wildlife, aerospace education and early childhood education. He has conducted workshops and delivered papers at national conferences on these subjects, as well as on the benefits of the gathering and preparing of wild foods.

Previous recipients of the Great Teacher Award include Ronald Yarbrough, David Seligman, Daniel Havens and Rudolph Wilson. In 1974, two SIUE teachers, Marilyn Livingston and John Oldani, shared the honor. Recipient in 1975 was Dorothy Talbot, now retired. Last year, Billy J. Rogers and Dickie Spurgeon tied for the award. Williams and his wife and two children reside in Edwardsville.

The first Sambo's drew its name from the two original partners, Sam Battistone and Newell Bennett. When the initial restaurant proved popular, they opened a second unit in 1958 in Sacramento, Calif., and have continued expanding since. Disney noted, "Sambo's now builds approximately 160 restaurants a year, an average of one every 2 1/2 days, Disney said. During 1976, total restaurants sales topped the $348 million mark. Originally a "pancake house", Sambo's now offers a full family menu 24-hours a day and is constantly revising and improving its wide range of menu selections, Disney added.

The Granite City restaurant will give away a six-inch tiger as a gift on Saturday. Free gifts and refreshments also will be given to patrons Friday and Saturday.

Robbers captured, Feltmeyer praised

At the 18th annual Illinois State Police awards banquet held in Springfield, Larry Feltmeyer of Granite City was presented a certificate of appreciation by Lynn E. Baird, superintendent.

Feltmeyer was cited for assistance rendered when he, at the risk of death or great bodily harm, followed two armed robbers.

Even though the suspects fired six shots at his vehicle, he obtained a full description of the vehicle, including the license, which led to the apprehension of all subjects involved, Baird noted.

The award was presented as a part of ceremonies recognizing outstanding service or acts of heroism by troopers.

The program also recognizes private citizens who come to the aid of troopers or others. Four state troopers and four citizens were given awards at this year's ceremonies.

The Madison County Sheriff's Office said Tinnon apparently fell from a truck operated by Billy Creek, 26, of 2128 Denver Ave., as the vehicle was rounding a curve and a wire broke which was holding the door closed.

Tinnon suffered a possible head injury, a fracture in the lower back, lacerations and scratches to the back and bruises and scratches to the right arm.

Medical-surgical nursing

A specialization in medical-surgical nursing, as an extension of the existing master's degree program in nursing at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville, was authorized here Thursday by the SIU Board of Trustees.

No new degree or program was created by the action. Students completing the specialization will receive a master of science in nursing. University officials said it was determined through a feasibility study conducted during the summer of 1976 that 74 area nurses were interested in pursuing graduate preparation in medical-surgical nursing. It is estimated that the specialization, when fully implemented, will enroll 20 or more new students each year.

Development of the specialization was coordinated with the School of Dental Medicine, which will be involved in teaching some of the courses proposed. The specialization also is supported by the Illinois Implementation Commission on Nursing.

Resources necessary to initiate the specialization will come from reallocations within the School of Nursing and additional state funding of about $18,000.

The additional state funds are included in the New and Expanded Program element of the 1978-79 fiscal year budget request for SIUE, also approved by the trustees Thursday.

The resolution adopted by the board stipulates that the action be reported to the staff of the Illinois Board of Higher Education.

Gateway Christian Academy graduation

James Murray, president of the Oakland City College, Oakland City, Ind., was the guest speaker at graduation ceremonies of the Gateway Christian Academy, of Mount Zion General Baptist Church, 21st and Benton Streets.

Four senior students graduated and each received scholarships. Mary Robinson, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Robinson, 2648 Madison Ave. Mark Warren, son of Mr. and Mrs. Oshell Warren, Rural Route One, and David Sipes, son of Mr. and Mrs. Willis Sipes, 160 Briarwood Lane, all were presented with $1,500 scholarships.

The other graduate, Karen Walton, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Gilreth of Edwardsville, received a full 4-year scholarship.

The ceremony opened with the students entering the church sanctuary to the music of "Onward Christian Soldiers" followed by the graduates and their parents.

Kathy Ruffelt recited the 12th chapter of Romans and Janet Ruffelt recited verses taken from the book of Matthew. "Only One Life" was sung by Pam Warren and a poem entitled, "My Will" was presented by Mary Robinson. Awards to other students were presented by Steven Hale, school supervisor and the Rev. Donald Clark, church pastor. Requirements for a school year are 40 pages and trophies were given to the students who excelled in more than the requirement.

Honor students included Jeff Frost, Jim Doty, Mary Robinson, Nancy Walton and Mark Warren completing 60 to 75 pages; Kathy and Janet Ruffelt - 75 or more. Cherry Painter completed 86, which was the top award and she also earned a plaque for perfect attendance.

Karen Walton was presented with the highest award offered the pupils, the "supervisors award."

After the guest speaker's talk, the Rev. Clark gave the diplomas to the graduates. During the school year the pupils voted Mary Robinson, "Miss Gateway Academy" and Mark Warren, "Mr. Gateway Academy." They also selected Monica Morris, a seventh grade student, as Little Miss GCA and Ricky Williams, a fifth grader as Little Mr. GCA.

Preceding the commencement exercises a banquet dinner was served to the students and their families in observance of the first year the school was in operation.

Secretaries here want to remain 'just' secretaries.

"I am a secretary by choice. I trained to be one through college courses and sitting for the certified professional secretary (CPS) examination, and I prefer to remain in the secretarial field, which I truly enjoy—instead of being 'kicked upstairs' into a 'management position of some type'."

This was a typical reaction among more than 280 secretaries and administrative assistants who were quizzed at a three-day annual meeting of the Illinois Division, The National Secretaries Association (Int'l), held at the Breckenridge Inn, Fontenac.

Members of the Alton and Tri-Cities NSA Chapters served as hosts for the meeting, and coordinators were Mrs. June Moscoe, CPS, of Alton, and Mrs. Twila Edmonds of the Tri-Cities Chapter.

One NSA member said she had been moved to a management job. She worked at it for some time before persuading her employer that she was happier remaining in the secretarial field, where she felt she was more capable, and which work she enjoyed.

Many of those questioned strongly felt that secretarial status should be upgraded and not considered as a "stepping stone" to a management position, unless that was the goal chosen by the secretary.

One of the common complaints was the fact that individuals with titles of secretary or administrative assistant were in many cases performing work normally done by an administrative assistant.

They felt the company should recognize this and give the employee recognition, as well as earned merit increases, when deserved.

Another respondent, whose title was legal secretary, said she actually could qualify as a "para-legal" and does more work than assigned. However, she felt that some day the title of administrative assistant would become a "catch-all" title, as secretary is at this time.

Many agreed that through their own initiative they had built their jobs into more comprehensive positions than generally associated with the secretarial title.

"They've voiced" hope that management would realize this and recognize those who had done so, through a promotion in title and wages, but not promoting them out of the secretarial field.

"It's hard to convince" my boss, said one member, "that I am doing the type of work that I want to continue doing until I retire."

"I'm willing to take on as much responsibility as possible, but I have no desire to give up the secretarial line of work just because he thinks the job is beneath my capabilities."

"That is an erroneous opinion, and my aim is to keep improving on the job until I become his valued assistant, and he himself becomes aware of my importance. In helping him to achieve all that he does by my taking over more and more of the minor elements of his job."

The three-day meeting opened with a similar conducted by W. H. Higginbotham, a lecturer and consultant, tours of the city and Grant's Farm, and a Las Vegas theme open house program.

A business session, secretary-of-the-year contest and banquet were held, concluding with a memorial service for NSA members who had died during the previous 12 months, and a final business session conducted by Illinois Division President Fern E. Jacobs of Elk Grove Village.

It was the 25th annual meeting of the Illinois Division. Serving as chapter delegate from the Tri-Cities Chapter was Mrs. Gail Foley, CPS president. Eighteen were in attendance from the local chapter.

Elkettes hear Don Parente

The president introduced Earl Warnhoff who presented the club with a check on behalf of the Elk Lodge.

Entertainment was provided by Mrs. Wilma Russell and prizes won by Virginia Johnson, Roberta Cottrell, Mrs. Trachsel, Bernice Grimm, Muriel Dressel, Gladys Gandoria, Charlene Miller and Helen Schmeisser.

Hostesses for the evening were Olga Koenig, Marion Willard, and Helen Bergfield.

Homemakers study nutrition

The major lesson, "Nutrition—Fact or Fiction," was presented by Mrs. Hilda Griffiths at the June meeting of the Granite City Unit of Homemakers Extension at Grace Baptist Church.

Mrs. Griffiths explained that nutrition is a very popular topic. There are many claims about the nutritional value and safety of our food which is quite confusing to the consumer. She related that nutrition is a relatively new science with many unknown answers. Our food is a very personal item and many times our food choices and beliefs are not based on reason or logic. Food is big business, capitalizing on fears or desires can be very profitable.

She enumerated several fallacies about food and talked about direct and indirect additives and how processing can cause vitamin loss.

She stated that most Americans can get all of the vitamins they need by eating a wide variety of foods from the grocer's shelves.

Mrs. Griffiths closed the lesson by giving the members ways to recognize questionable information on such products as food supplements, expensive cookware and books and diet. She also gave a delightful account of her personal experience at a Japanese dinner party.

The business meeting was opened by the Chairman, Helen Oberlin. The minutes were read by the secretary, LaNell Lessey, and treasurers report given by Freddy McElroy.

The nominating committee, Madge Ramsey and Rosalia Johanneimer, announced that Mrs. Wilma Owa has accepted another term of office for second vice-chairman and Mrs. Freddy McElroy has accepted another term of office for treasurer.

Mrs. Johanneimer gave a report on the 41st annual achievement meeting in April. She stated that 320 attended with Venice-Madison having the largest percentage of cooperators in attendance.

Mrs. LaNell Lessey reviewed the meeting of the executive board, which met to discuss policy rules. All policies were read and new policies were discussed and accepted by the members.

Mrs. Oberlin announced the Patchworkers 4-H annual achievement night at St. Elizabeth school cafeteria at 7:00 p.m. on June 23. All members were invited to view the many accomplishments of the club under the direction of Martha McIlvay.

Mrs. Oberlin added that Madison County members will attend Homemakers camp on Wednesday, July 6, in Jacksonville, Ill.

Reservations are due June 20 accompanied by a check for $11.50. This amount will cover coffee and cake upon arrival and noon and evening meal plus bus fare to Jacksonville. A variety of creative craft ideas will be taught.

Anna Michels, first vice-chairman announced the July unit meeting would be a luncheon meeting at the Barrel Restaurant at 12 noon on Thursday, July 7. The meeting date was changed from July 6 to July 7 because of the Homemakers camp. Reservations for the luncheon meeting are due by July 1st, by calling 676-1402. Members are to bring an unwrapped "white elephant" gift. Guests are welcome. It was noted.

Hostesses for the meeting were Bernice Johanneimer and LaNell Lessey.

Members in attendance were, Mary Zikovich, Madge Ramsey, Tony Lynch, Olivia Bergschneider, Helen Parks, Martha Taylor, Mary Oberlin, Hazel Cline, Rosalia Johanneimer.

Gernice Johanneimer, Wanda Schewe, Helen M. Oberlin, LaNell Lessey, Anna Michels, Freddy McElroy, Wilma Owa, Hilda Griffiths, Josephine Uram.

Surbey-Sparks wedding at St. John United

St. John United Church of Christ was the scene of the wedding on May 21 of Miss Marilyn Elaine Sparks, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph M. Sparks, 2332 Cleveland Blvd., and Paul Surbey, a son of the Rev. Dr. and Mrs. Paul Surbey, 2801 Namoki Road.

Arrangements of red roses adorned the altar and burning tapers in tiered candelabra illuminated the sanctuary for the double ring ceremony performed at 7:30 in the evening by the groom's father, the Rev. Surbey.

During the service all participants were given a candle to join in the Parable of the Candles.

Organist Mrs. Irene Rapp accompanied the groom's mother, Mrs. Georgia Surbey, as she sang, "The Lord's Prayer." Escorted to the altar and given in marriage by her father, the bride chose a formal length white tulle gown, fashioned with an Empire bodice and crystal motifs. The long full sleeves were gathered with lace cuffs at the wrists.

Her slightly full skirt extended into a cathedral train. She wore a lace Juliet cap, studded with crystals, to secure a full length veil of bridal illusion.

The bridal bouquet was a cascade of red and white roses, intermingled with trailing ivy.

Mrs. Jan Wendle, a sister of the groom, was matron of honor, and bridesmaids included Miss Deborah Adamove, Miss Penny Goza, Miss Donna Roseman and Mrs. Dawn Schoenberg.

They selected long red halter style dresses complemented with red chiffon capes. Each attendant held three long stem red roses.

The groom chose Max Baker as his best man. Gary Wendle, a brother-in-law of the groom, Brad Baker, Jeffrey Sparks, the bride's brother, and Thomas Ludwig were groomsmen.

Escorting the guests to their seats were George Kessel, Brad Baker, Miss Elaine Noth and Miss Brenda Wuebblers.

Guests were received by the newly married couple after the ceremony at a reception held in the church fellowship hall.

A rehearsal dinner was hosted by the groom's parents at Charlie's Restaurant, on the evening prior to the service.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Sparks chose a floor length gown of black and white print knit designed with a square neckline fashioned with an attached cape.

Mrs. Surbey, mother of the groom, was attired in a black and white print chiffon sleeveless dress featuring a V-neckline and Empire waist, complemented with a chiffon cape.

Both mothers wore wrist corsages of red Jacqueline roses.

The bride and groom both graduated in 1973 from Granite City High School. She, a graduate of Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville, the former Miss Sparks was a member of Beta Gamma Sigma Sorority. She is now employed as an auditor at Ernst & Ernst, St. Louis.

The groom graduated summa cum laude from Washington University, St. Louis, this month. He is a member of Phi Beta Kappa and will attend graduate school in the fall at the University of Minnesota, Minneapolis, where he will study for a Ph.D degree in child development.

After Aug. 1 the newly married couple will move to Minneapolis.

$5 monthly rent hike at Tower Lake

An increase of approximately $5 per month in rental rates for student housing at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville was approved Thursday by the SIU Board of Trustees. The increase will be effective Sept. 1.

A single student currently pays $50 per month to live in a two-bedroom, four-student apartment unit at the local university's Tower Lake housing complex. The rate is $100 monthly per student for a two-bedroom, two-student unit; $40 per student for a three-bedroom, six-student unit; and $85 per student for a three-bedroom, three-student unit.

The rate increase will be $5 per student for each type of unit except the two-bedroom, two-student apartment, where the increase will be $10 per student. Current rates for family housing are: two-bedroom unfurnished apartment, $135; two-bedroom furnished, $145; three-bedroom unfurnished, $145; and three-bedroom furnished, $158. The increase will be $5 per month for each apartment.

University officers said the increases are necessary to meet anticipated inflationary trends and to offset losses incurred by reductions in tuition and fee retention funds.

Tuition and fee retention funds were reduced one-third by the Illinois Board of Higher Education for fiscal year 1976-77, representing a loss of revenue of $82,000 in family housing and $50,000 in single student housing.

Housing officers said they managed to avoid rate increases during 1976-77 by eliminating and consolidating job positions and the payment of expenses. The operating budget proposed for 1977-78 indicates the rate boosts are necessary to maintain an acceptable living environment at Tower Lake, they said.

Mini-vacation shuttle route

A "mini-vacation" trip encompassing many of the metropolitan area's attractions is available aboard Bi-State's St. Louis Shuttle bus beginning Wednesday. Executive Director Robert J. Baer has announced. The touring buses will operate daily except Monday throughout the summer on a 24-mile route extending west from the Gateway Arch on the Mississippi riverfront to Forest Park, passing various points of interest. The first bus will leave Wharf Street adjacent to the Arch at 10:15 each morning, with the last bus returning to the riverfront at approximately 7:15 p.m.

Fares for the shuttle this year are the same as on regular service Bi-State bus lines. Adults will pay 25 cents each time they board, with service provided at 40-minute intervals throughout the day.

Children aged five through 11 may ride for 15 cents. Elderly and handicapped persons with Bi-State identification cards will be charged 10 cents at all times except from 4 p.m. to 6 p.m. weekdays, when the fare is 15 cents. Transfers, costing 10 cents for adults and children, will be issued free to senior citizens and handicapped riders.

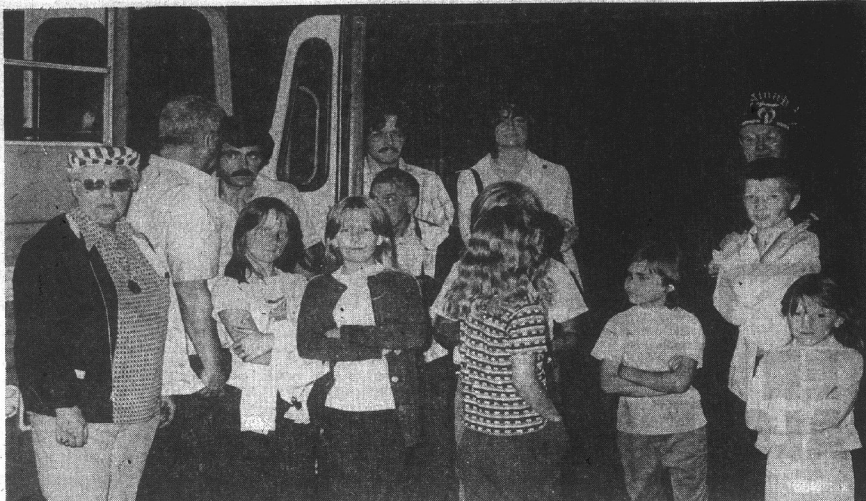

The shuttle will make nearly 60 stops along its route at points designated by special shuttle signs, and will interact with numerous other Bi-State lines. After leaving the Arch, shuttle buses will stop at the Old Cathedral, Old Courthouse, Busch Stadium and the new Convention Center.

Proceeding west on Market past Union Station, the buses will operate over Spring to Lindell and pass the New Cathedral en route to attractions in Forest Park including the Jewel Box, Municipal Opera, Jefferson Memorial, Zoo, Art Museum and Planetarium. The westernmost stop will be made at the corner of Skinker and Clayton Road.

SECOND INSTALLMENT OF TAXES WEDNESDAY

Taxpayers who filed estimated tax on their 1977 income must pay the second quarter installment by Wednesday, June 15. The provision in the law for taxpayers to pay estimated tax in four equal installments means that half of the tax should be paid by June 15, using declaration-voucher number 2 from the Form 1040-ES package.

Those whose anticipated income during 1977 has changed may have to file an amended declaration. Space appears in the estimated tax package to compute an amended estimate. For more detailed information, taxpayers can obtain Internal Revenue Service Publication 505, "Tax Withholding and Declaration of Estimated Tax."

the First United Presbyterian Church of Madison, Norman Burgess, discussing plans with Madison Chief of Police Donald Bridick, Mr. and Mrs. Vince (Lise) Saputo and Shriners Woodward Fowler.

Prime time now for poison ivy

Poison ivy. The name alone will send an itch up many backs. And in Southern Illinois, there's good reason for it.

"There's probably no place in the United States where poison ivy grows better," says J. Keith Leasure, weed control specialist at Southern Illinois University at Carbondale.

"This is prime poison ivy territory," he added. "You can expect to find it in any woods or along any fence row."

Some people are more sensitive to the weed than others. Some may never have been troubled by it but suddenly find themselves bedeviled by a rash and itch that seems to last seven days.

"Even if you aren't exposed directly, you can still get poison ivy. Old Rover can bring it in the house," Leasure said.

The active ingredient in poison ivy is a plant oil that is easily transferred to the fur of animals and on to humans. Just touching the clothing of someone who has come in contact with it can spark a reaction.

"Is poison ivy something you just have to suffer with, like the weather? No," says Leasure. "You can avoid an outbreak by applying a preventive lotion and you can eliminate the hazard around your home or farm with herbicides."

"Poison ivy growth is at its peak right now."

To reduce the chance of catching it, Leasure offers a few tidbits of information: "The plant's berries are white and waxy and the leaves are shiny, spear-shaped, up to three inches wide and as long as three inches."

There are two types of poison ivy in the woods. One grows low to the ground with long, slender brown runners under the soil, and with shoots emerging at each node.

"This is usually a foot to a foot and a half tall," Leasure explains.

The second type develops from these runners when they climb a tree and become woody vines that may grow to two or more inches in diameter. These large tree vines set a lot of seed, and you will almost always find patches of poison ivy on the ground below," Leasure added.

"How can you control poison ivy around your home? It is moderately susceptible to 2,4-D but several sprayings are necessary."

"Amino Triazole (sold under the trade names of Amitrol or Cytozol) is fairly effective."

Now is a good time to treat the weed with this material. Read the herbicide labels carefully and follow directions.

"For tree vines, carefully cut the vines completely through and spray any plants on the ground below. Wear protective clothes and, after you've finished, remove them with gloves and launder immediately."

"Small patches of the weed can be removed by hand. If you decide to burn poison ivy trash, stay away from the fire. The oil volatilizes and you can suffer serious consequences from the smoke," Leasure warns.

Can you prevent a poison ivy reaction? "Walter C. Muenscher, a botany professor at Cornell University, developed an 'old, well-known remedy'."

Leasure explains, "Make a mixture of equal parts of alcohol and water and dissolve as much ferric chloride in it as will dissolve."

"The best way to use this is to rub it on hands and arms before going out and wash it off before coming back in."

"It leaves a yellowish stain on the skin, but that will wash off. The lotion can be applied after contact and sometimes will prevent an outbreak. Leave it on for a day and then wash off."

"If all else fails, contact your doctor or druggist for a commercial lotion."

Threatens police

Granite City police were informed by a mental health clinic officer that a local man, had threatened to hold a "shoot out" with police officers outside the main post office last week.

The man, who had walked away from the Altan State Hospital, appeared at the scene carrying a large handmade wooden club. Officers confiscated the club and later escorted him back to the state hospital.

Equal rights—and the lack of them—continue in the news

Should women have equal rights? Certainly.

The question is easy to answer in its simplest terms. Unfortunately for Equal Rights Amendment advocates, the debate is not being limited to fundamentals, and whether ratification will be achieved by the 1979 deadline remains in doubt.

In balloting June 2 in the Illinois House, approval required 107 votes, three-fifths of the 177 members. With the tally 101-74, the proposal was withdrawn from consideration and can be considered again between now and the scheduled June 30 adjournment.

With Indiana the 35th state to vote to ratify, only three more approvals are needed. But the going has gotten tougher. ERA backers say it is self-evident that women should not be discriminated against, and note that many states, including Illinois, have outlawed bias on the basis of sex.

Foes suggest that the courts would expand on the amendment to make ridiculous rulings. Opponents also say they seek to protect the family unit, and exclaiming "Viva la difference!", they add that legislators should continue to be able to enact laws recognizing "reasonable" differences between men and women. Because the U.S. Supreme Court does exercise considerable latitude in interpreting the meaning of the Constitution, for all practical purposes the "women's rights" concept already exists. We tend to hope that the mostly-male legislatures will complete ERA ratification within the near future and get on with other pending issues.

Those who doubt that full equality has yet to be reached may wish to consider the following points made at the Illinois women's conference that ended yesterday at Normal, Ill.

While the suicide rate in general has remained relatively stable over the last 15 years, the attempt rate has increased dramatically. Would-be suicides are primarily young women, particularly women under the age of 30.

Studies on diseases common to men and women often do not include women as subjects, such as the Framingham, Mass. Study on heart disease and the multifactor high-risk study of health effects of smoking, drinking and diet.

Women over 60 are ten times as likely to be crime victims as the rest of the population. Elderly women are becoming an increasing proportion of the American population. By the year 2,000, one-fifth of the elderly will be women over 75. In 1974, there were 169 women per 100 men in the 75-and-up age group.

Unemployment rates for minority women are double those of white men.

Minority women earn only 49.6 percent of the pay of white men.

In 1973, there were 9,851,000 widows and 3,275,000 divorced women, a 41 per cent increase in widows since 1950 and a 166 per cent increase in divorced women since 1950. (U.S. Dept. of Commerce, Bureau of the Census, Statistical Abstract of the U.S., 1974)

Federal estate and gift tax laws and State inheritance tax laws generally assume that the homemaker makes no economic contribution to the family. Homemaking wives who become disabled are not now entitled to Social Security benefits through their services to their families must be replaced. Likewise, the family of a homemaker wife who dies receives no benefit.

Only 14 per cent of divorced women are awarded alimony, and of these only 40 per cent collect regularly. Only 44 per cent of divorced mothers are awarded child support, and of these only 47 per cent collect regularly.

In March 1974, children of working mothers number 26.8 million; 6.1 million of those children were under the age of five. Among these children, 4.6 million had mothers who were single, separated, divorced or widowed heads of families. The estimated number of day care slots available—only 905,000.

The percentage of women in Congress is only 3.4 per cent.

On the average, a state board or commission contains only 15 per cent women.

Jobs are still thought of in terms of "men's work" or "women's work," with the latter traditionally the lower-paying. In industrialized countries, women's pay still averages only 60 per cent to 70 per cent of men's.

A survey of files at the State Department's Office of International Conferences revealed that in 1975, out of a total of 3,653 delegates to conferences, meetings, working groups, councils, etc., 3,459 were men and only 194, or five per cent, were women.

Males outnumber females in school enrollment, although more than half the eligible high school seniors are female. In the U.S., latest statistics show 44 per cent women and 56 per cent men enrolled in high schools and colleges.

Reasons for voter apathy more complex than registration

Comments by U.S. Senator Charles H. Percy in a speech to fellow senators—President Carter's proposal for election-day voter registration could increase the likelihood of vote fraud and would provide little if any incentive for voters to go to the polls.

The proposal would do more harm than good to the electoral process. The plan would allow individuals to prove voter eligibility and register to vote in federal elections on election day.

What is more disturbing about this proposal is its potential for actually facilitating vote fraud. One purpose of voter registration laws that require registration prior to election day is to establish accurate voter rolls.

It would be counterproductive to short-circuit this system by establishing election-day registration. A major weakness of the plan is the premise that election-day registration will increase voter turnout.

The causes of voter apathy are far more complex than voter registration laws alone. It is unlikely, in my judgment, that eligible though apathetic voters would be more inclined to vote simply because of election-day registration.

Congressional testimony by John H. Hanley, chairman of the Chicago Board of Election Commissioners, gave warning that election-day registration would accelerate vote fraud. Hanley told the House Administration Committee that polling-place registration would "set the cause of honest elections back many years" and would erode the integrity of the voting system because it lacks safeguards.

He said a statement issued in opposition to election-day registration by the Association of Election Commissioners of Illinois, and testimony against the bill delivered to the Senate Committee on Rules and Administration by Thomas F. Roemer, chairman of Project LEAP, the Chicago-based, non-artisan, election watchdog organization.

enduring banner of the United States of America.

America's flag a symbol of peace, freedom, truth, justice and charity

To the Editor: Flag Day, June 14—a time for patriotism.

The celebration in honor of the American flag is something which should not be taken lightly.

The colors of the flag stand for peace and freedom. The red stripes symbolize the blood spilled in defense of this glorious nation.

The white stripes signify the burning tears shed by Americans who lost their sons. The blue field indicates God's heaven under which it flies.

Improvement program in S. Venice

To the Editor: I am advising property owners of the South Venice area that we have a neighborhood improvement association. For information, you may contact me at 451-9514.

What we are trying to do is to help upgrade our community by painting and fixing houses, and cleaning up yards and vacant lots.

We would like to have volunteers to help out our citizens, or those like lawnmowers, ladders, paint, paint brushes and any types of tools along with people's help.

There will be a meeting June 23 at the Venice Recreation Center.

Selma Nelson

Ten years with Granco Steel Products Company, a subsidiary of Granite City Steel Co., as company analyst, starting in June 1961.

A semester as a Coolidge Junior High School English teacher, January-May 1962.

And, for the past 15 years, counselor at Granite City High School and GCCHS South. For the past four years of that span, she has been South's coordinator of pupil personnel services.

During her years as a teacher and then counselor in the Granite City district, she has acquired much experience and insight, enabling her to deal effectively with students of the 1950s, with their children and even with some grandchildren.

She has continued to follow the successes and disappointments of numerous former students as they have progressed through various opportunities and challenges in life.

Her employment with Granco followed three years in business with Granco Steel Co., the educational field, the latter including 11 years in the School District Nine and five years at Granco Steel Co.

"I took the Granco position as a summer job to set up the business office procedures and remained there for ten years. This was the longest summer of my life," she says with a smile.

Miss Nelson has served as president and a charter member of the Granite City Branch, American Association of University Women; president and Founders' Committee member, Granite City School Foundation; and president, St. Louis chapter, Alpha Kappa Alpha International, a service club.

A member of the First Presbyterian Church of Granite City, she also has headed the Alpha Chapter, Delta Kappa Gamma an honorary education society for women.

A native East St. Louis, she is a Granite City resident since 1912, she is the eldest daughter of Mrs. J. E. Nelson and the late James E. Nelson.

She is the sister of Mrs. Kenneth Betka, Rankin, Ill., the late Elsie Nelson and the late Harry E. Nelson.

Her initial education was at Emerson Grade School, Central Junior High School and Granite City High School.

After two years at the Southern Illinois Teachers College, Carbondale, she attended the University of Missouri (Columbia), receiving the degree of bachelor of science in education and then master of education.

She holds a specialist-in-education qualification from Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville.

Miss Nelson has witnessed immense changes in the schools and in modern conditions.

She is concerned about reduced reading skills but remains generally optimistic. "The permissive society of today may not be best for the young people but I am glad more parents are respecting their children as having their own ideas, rather than trying to mold them into a pattern."

"Overall, young people today aren't bad, nor are they indifferent to the world around them. Only about 250 out of 2,500 or 3,000 have some sort of problem."

"This is a very different generation than 25 years ago. The older generation must revise its attitudes and work with current situations," she is convinced.

A Granite City police spokesman warned residents to be cautious in making purchases from telephone solicitations.

One resident complained to officers that he agreed to purchase a television set from a firm which said it was employing handicapped persons. The firm was not receiving a bill including substantial shipping and handling charges.

Mrs. Louise Gerdes dies

Mrs. Louise (Weber) Gerdes, 88, of 189 Sandy Shores, died at 10:15 a.m. Sunday at St. Elizabeth Hospital.

Mrs. Gerdes was employed from 1940 until 1964 at Clean Craft Cleaners.

Her husband, Louis Gerdes, died May 10, 1965.

Survivors include one son, Henry (Butzie) Weber of Granite City; two sisters, Mrs. Alvin (Butzie) Weber of Chesterfield, Mo., and Miss Marie Erbe of St. Louis; one brother, Harry Erbe of St. Louis; one grandchild, a son, and two great-grandchildren.

Funeral arrangements are given in a obituary column.

Workers strike at Center

Twenty-four drivers and warehousemen at L.J. Ross & Sons' Home Center, Route 111 and State Aid Route 45, established pickets at the center's gate at 7 a.m. today after voting to reject a company contract offer Friday.

The striking workers are members of Teamsters' Local 325 and have been told the union will contact a federal mediator today in an attempt to have negotiations resumed.

What was termed the company's "final offer" was presented Friday and the employees met at 10:30 a.m. in the Teamsters' Hall in Alton to vote on the contract, it was reported.

Those attending the session voted in favor of the contract. Similar offers being made to workers in about 25 other lumber yards in central and southern Illinois could result in strikes at those establishments by the end of this week, strikers said.

The Teamsters' contract with L.J. Ross expired May 1 and the workers have been working without a contract since then. Ross said all company offers have been retroactive to May 1.

He said the strike here does not affect the D-I-Y Home Center in Creve Coeur, Mo., but one striker said hamper deliveries from the main warehouse here to the Missouri location could result eventually in shortages.

Ross said supervisory personnel will, conduct all operations necessary to keep both locations open and supplied and predicted the strike will not hamper business at either location.

He also said the strike is the first against L.J. Ross Construction or the D-I-Y Center in 25 years.

During that search, officers were notified the 31-year-old man was attempting to hang himself by his shirt in his jail cell. The shirt, which could not support his weight, had to be cut from around his neck and he was taken unconscious by ambulance to St. Elizabeth Hospital.

He was being treated this morning in the hospital's emergency room and was to be admitted.

The Officer called for assistance and several squad cars were summoned. Before the units arrived, the man opened the building through the broken window on the Delmar Avenue side.

Arrest two in store break-in

Two men, ages 31 and 34, were arrested inside Federburg Furniture, Nixinghaus and Delmar avenues, at 2:50 a.m. today and charges are being prepared against them by Granite City police.

An officer on patrol near the building heard glass breaking and saw a man wearing a white shirt and dark pants picking up broken glass from the sidewalk and putting it inside the building through the broken window on the Delmar Avenue side.

The Officer called for assistance and several squad cars were summoned. Before the units arrived, the man opened the building through the broken window on the Delmar Avenue side.

Former Granite City School Superintendent Paul A. Grigsby will be honored at a reception from 2 to 4 p.m. Sunday, June 26, at the Huntsville, Mo., courthouse on his retirement from the Central College (Payette, Mo.) faculty. Instead of converting, more mental hospitals to prisons, the state will build two new prisons at a cost of $50 million, Governor James Thompson says.

Granite City could receive $670,000 and Madison County $371,000 in second-phase economic development funds, Illinois officials said during the weekend.

Illinois Commerce Commission officials indicated last week in Springfield that they will approve a 9.3 per cent rate of return on Illinois Power Company's electricity rate base, breaching a previous nine per cent limit. They described it as justified due to its greater efficiency than other utilities.

A new service to the home buying and selling public, a home buyers' guide has been introduced throughout the U.S. and Canada by Century 21 Real Estate Corporation. Bernard Royce, of Century 21 Royal Realty in Granite City said the kit fills a need in the education of all prospective home buyers.

The home buyer's kit contains valuable information on financing property, tips on what to look for and inspect in a home, moving checklists, and several decision-maker checklists to help sort out track of possible choices of a new home," Royce said.

"As part of our neighborhood professional services, we're offering this informative and educational brochure free to anyone moving to a new area. Also, renters thinking of buying a home for the first time could use such guidelines."

Royce said free copies are available at his office, 2862 Madison Ave.

Phyllis Jean Benoit and Richard Hensley are wed

Miss Phyllis Jean Benoit and Richard Arthur Hensley were united in marriage in an early evening ceremony, on May 7, at the First United Presbyterian Church.

The Rev. Charlotte Zachary and the Rev. David Maxton officiated at the double ceremony at 7 o'clock in the evening, before an altar banked with bouquets of pink, green, yellow and blue blossoms.

Soloist Mrs. Gary Schmitz was accompanied by Mrs. Isabelle Schmidt at the organ. Nuptial selections included "The Wedding Song," "We've Only Just Begun" and "Sunrise, Sunset."

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Benoit, 18 Nassau Ave. Parents of the groom are Mr. and Mrs. Robert Vaughn of Granite City, and Mr. and Mrs. James H. Hensley of O'Fallon.

For her wedding the bride selected a long white Chantilly lace gown fashioned with a molded bodice and a round scoop neckline, edged with a Chantilly lace ruffle. The long tapered sleeves terminated with a matching lace ruffle.

White satin ribbon and Venise lace marked the natural waistline of the bouffant skirt and also bordered the hemline which extended into a cathedral train.

She wore a lace Juliet cap to secure her fingertip veil of white illusion trimmed with Venise lace.

Matron of honor Mrs. Curtis McClanahan selected a blue organza over taffeta Empire style dress. Matching satin ribbon accented the molded bodice, featuring a scoop neckline, and also trimmed the long puff sleeves and defined the high rise waistline.

The decorative ribbon trim edged the deep ruffled flounce, which encircled the softly gathered skirt.

The bridesmaids wore identically designed gowns. Mrs. Albert Taylor, a sister of the groom, and Mrs. Dennis Melton, chose green dresses. Mrs. James Longbottom and Miss Linda Bonatt, appeared in pink and the junior bridesmaids, Misses Karle Rae Taylor, a niece of the groom, and Jennifer Lynn Benoit, the bride's sister, wore yellow frocks.

Eddie Lane attended the groom as best man, Albert Taylor, Larry Frazier, a cousin of the groom, Douglas Wickham, Philip Laswell, Dave Tutka and Terry Davis, completed the corps of groomsmen and ushers.

A reception for guests was held at the DAY Hall immediately following the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Vaughn entertained members of the wedding party at a rehearsal dinner held in their home.
